Re:Mac Online
Sunday April 5, 2020

Greetings MacChap family! Welcome to Re:Mac Online. As we journey together through this time of physical distancing we hope this weekly newsletter may help us communicate how we will meet together, and other ways we together can build the Body of Christ here at Macquarie Chapel.

Please see page 2 for details of how you can access church in various ways this Sunday.

We continue our Term One Sermon Series for 2020, 'Friend of God' - the Gospel of Luke.

Dave Woolcott will preach on Luke chapter 23:13-25 this Sunday.

We hope you can join us in some way on Sunday & please be at prayer during this time.

Let us Pray

Remembering that our God is always faithful, is good for our soul. Spending quiet time with Him in prayer is also good for the soul. There is so much to be praying for - we give a few suggestions to help our prayer focus;

Those who are suffering from COVID-19 and those in the health sector caring for and treating them, that God would provide healing, strength and protection.

Thank God for his sovereignty over all things and that nothing is too hard for him to handle, and that he would help us fix our eyes on Him, His grace and truth.

Ask God to help us gain a focus at this time on what is really important in life, and our need for relationship with Him.

Who we are & who we want to be

We want to be a church that imitates Christ; a place where people can grow, where we glorify God and enjoy Him forever.

Like the first followers of Jesus we want to worship, learn, connect and reach out to others with God's love and truth. We want to be people like this individually and as a community.

If you want to know more about Jesus or know more about MacChap - please chat to someone, or send us an email or letter.
